Property Description

If you are looking for an immaculate, cozy home in the Algarve, this south-facing estate can be your choice.

The house sits in a calm residential spot of Salema from where you reach easily in a few minutes' walk the beach, many shops, restaurants, beach bars, etc.

The LOCATION inside the natural park "Costa Vicentina" is highly sought after, the Salema beach is blue flagged, and you are also well connected to all amenities. Lagos town, Sagres, or Vila do Bispo are only a short drive away.

SIZE and FEATURES: This two-storey house of 155m2 nests on a 225m2 plot. Downstairs you find a vast open living-dining with a fire place. Large window sliding doors lead to the terrace and garden. The indoor connects beautifully to the outdoor so that you can enjoy the lovely Algarvian climate all year round. Furthermore, this ground level boasts a friendly and functional, fully equipped kitchen, an indoor patio, a guest's bathroom and storage.

The upper floor comprises 3 well-sized bedrooms (one suite), 2 spacious bathrooms and a sunny balcony. In addition, this property has a private parking space on the front patio for 2 cars.

As you can see, this home makes a perfect match for a family to live permanently in the Algarve. But, on the other hand, it suits excellent for lucrative holiday rentals.
